A DOUBLE LIFE.

The story of a double life was revealed in General Sessions on Friday, when Selim Ghazal, a prominent Syrian, of Brooklyn, and at one time an agent of the United States Treasury Department, pleaded guilty to forgery, and was sentenced to state prison for not less than three and not more than six years.

Judge Crain, who imposed sentence, was flooded with letters from government officials and prominent business men. According to the assistant district attorney, Ghazal, while posing as a reputable business man, taking an active part in the social affairs of his countrymen and maintaining his family comfortably, he has been obtaining most of his income from forgeries and fraudulent schemes of which Syrian and Greek merchants were the victims.
When confronted with the complaints and told that the old indictment of 1908 might be revived, Ghazal broke down and pleaded guilty to forgery in the second degree.

LEAVES HAIR ON ROOF.

Francis Cleary, of No. 151 east 110th street, New York, who is eight years old and a habitual truant, has been attending the Industrial School in 103d street, near Second avenue, when he pleaded.
Friday morning, instead of going to school as his mother supposed, he went up on the roof of the building at No.
171 east 103d street and went to sleep.
In the afternoon several persons living on the south side of the street reported to Patrolman Prazak, of the east 104th street station, that they could see a boy's legs waving in the air on the roof of No. 171. Prazak went to the roof and discovered Francis lying on his back, his head securely struck in some trap that had been softened by the sun, trying to free himself. Dr. Fulton, of Harlem Hospital, who soon arrived, sent for a barber, and Francis went home later leaving a lot of his hair behind him on the roof.

Lee O'Neill Browne, democratic leader of the General Assembly, indicted for bribery in the Lorimer election scandal was surrendered by his bondsmen Alderman John Powers in Chicago, on Saturday.

CLARK ACCEPTABLE.

Following the reports sent out from Washington some days ago that there would be democratic opposition to the election of Representative Champ Clark, of Missouri, as speaker in case that party was successful in electing the next House, prominent democratic members of the House have given out statements denying such opposition. Representatives Garner, of Texas, and James, of Kentucky, denied that there was any material opposition to Mr. Clark on the minority side. Other prominent members of the minority joined in the protest. Mr. Garner declared that at least 90 per cent. of the democrats were for Mr. Clark for speaker.

Saloonkeeper in Trouble.

Singee, N. J., June 6.—James Purdy, a saloonkeeper, is in a cell here muttering dire things about "a woman scorned." Mrs. Arthur Yates went to Purdy a few days ago and begged him not to sell any more drinks to her husband.

"If your husband has money, you can bet I'll sell him drinks. If you were a man I'd throw you out," shouted Purdy to the wife.

Mrs. Yates reported the matter to the police. An investigation was made and Purdy was hauled into court and fined $500 for back license and selling without a license.

"And keep him in a cell till he pays," dryly remarked the judge.

Dispatches received from New Orleans Saturday from Managua, Nigaragua, stated that Col. Wm. Pitman, of Boston, who holds a commission under Estrada and who laid the mines at Bluefields, has been captured by the Madriz forces. Pitman was seized while laying new mines near the customs house.

Delegates to Conference.

New York, June 6.—High church dignitaries occupied all of the first and second cabin accommodations of the anchor line steamer Caledonia, when she left Saturday for Glasgow. They were delegates to the world's missionary conference which meets in Edinburgh, Scotland, at the middle of the month. There were more delegates than were carried by the Koonland, the specially chartered steamer, that sailed last Tuesday. The delegation was in charge of Dr. Henry K. Carroll, of Plainfield, N. J., former secretary of the Methodist board of foreign missions; Rev.
Dr. Arthur Brown and wife, the former chairman of the American committee of the conference, and William Henry Grant, secretary of the foreign boards of the United States and Canada.
A majority of the delegates on board the Caledonia came from the states west of the Mississippi river.

BURGLAR CAPTURED.

Miss Freda Dolinsky, the 20-year-old daughter of Herman Dolinsky, a silk manufacturer of New York, was awakened yesterday morning by a nudge from her younger sister, Augusta, with whom she was sleeping.
Augusta whispered that she had heard somebody in a rear room.

The two girls lay shivering and listening for a while, and then Freda struck a match and went into the room where her sister had heard the noise. She lighted the gas and saw a young man crouched under a table, pointing a revolver at her.
"If you holler or move I'll shoot," he said.

There was a seltzer bottle on the table. Freda snatched it and squirted the seltzer in the man's face. He fired, but the seltzer spoiled his aim, and the bullet hit the ceiling. Then Freda threw the bottle in his face, dazing him. She followed it up with other dishes that were handy, cutting him badly about the face. When her father and brother entered the room the burglar was on the floor and Freda was sitting on his chest a finger in each corner of his mouth, stretching it nearly back to his ears.

When the police arrived the whole family was on top of the intruder.
The prisoner was Max Levine, 24 years old. His face is in the rogues' gallery. Magistrate Cornell held him in $2,500 bail for the grand jury.

Two American missionaries, Miss W.
Williams and Howard Bishop, were drowned Saturday in the Gulf of Cambaya, India, according to dispatch from Bombay received in London today.

Greece Watching Turkey.

Athens, June 6.—For fear that Turkey is contemplating an aggressive movement in either Crete or Thessaly, the government today called out 10,000 reserves to reinforce the army. The government makes no official explanation of its action, but it is known that it is preparing for an overt act by Turkey.

MURDER AGENCY.

The mysterious death of a young and wealthy army officer, Count Bouturlin, in St. Petersburg, has led to the discovery of an extensive murder agency.
Bouturlin's brother-in-law, Count De-lassy, and his physician, Dr. Patchenko, who attended Bouturlin at Delassy's suggestion, are both under arrest.

Dr. Patchenko has confessed to the police that he inoculated Bouturlin with cholera bacilli. He further admitted that he poisoned other wealthy persons in a similar manner during the recent cholera epidemic under pretense of inoculating them against the disease. For this work he was paid huge sums by heirs of the men he killed.

By a strange coincidence the murder of a wealthy Polish land owner named Krjanowsky at Warsaw has led to the arrest of his brother-in-law, Count Roukier, who, it turns out, is connected with Delassy.

Steamer Ashore.

Christiansand, Norway, June 6.—
The Scandinavian-American Liner United States, bound for New York with more than 1,000 passengers, went ashore near here Saturday. The vessel was not badly damaged, but she will be delayed for several days. Her passengers were taken off and will be sent forward on another boat.
